From Norming to High Performing A Practical Guide to Enhancing the Effectiveness of a Nonprofit Board

One of the most talked about topics in recent years is board development. With the recent scandals in public and private corporations, and mismanagement of funds by some nonprofit organizations, “stakeholders” of these organizations and the general public are calling for more oversight from government and demanding more accountability on the part of the boards of these organizations.

From Norming to High Performing: A Practical Guide to Enhancing the Effectiveness of a Nonprofit Board is an interactive training program designed to help boards and executive staffs of nonprofit organizations perform at their maximum potential.

Board Training Topics Include:

- Roles and responsibilities of nonprofit boards
- Board/CEO/Staff relations
- Legal and fiduciary responsibilities
- Board assessments
- The board’s role in fundraising
- Committee structure and roles
- Effective board meetings
- The board and strategic planning
- Advisory boards
- Trends in governance
